Petitioners in these two writ petitions seek permission to withdraw the writ petitions without prejudice to their right to approach the Co-operative Arbitration Court under Section 69 of the Kerala Co-operative Societies Act. They also seek a direction that till they can file petitions, the interim stay granted in these writ petitions may be continued for a short period.

2. Having heard both sides, I dismiss these writ petitions as withdrawn without prejudice to the rights of the petitioners to file an arbitration case before the Co-operative Arbitration Court under Section 69 of the Kerala Co-operative Societies Act for redressal of their grievances in respect of their service which is the subject matter of these writ petitions. In order to enable them to do so, I further direct that the stay granted by this Court in the two writ petitions shall continue for a period of three weeks.

Judge
